The Quarterly Update

Welcome to the first edition of the Atlas Partners Newsletter for 2023, where we reflect on the quarter that has been.

During the first quarter of 2023, we achieved many significant milestones, successfully hosting our first Morning Meetup of the year, sponsoring Melbourne Young Professionals, moving into our new office and bringing on key hires.

Our investment into training and development continues to be a focus, ensuring we are employing best practice in everything we do.

As we look towards Q2, we remain committed to maintaining our standards of excellence and making a positive impact in our community.

We appreciate everyone's hard work and dedication towards our company goals, and we look forward to continuing our progress throughout the year.

Morning Meetup with Lucinda Hartley

Wednesday 22nd February 2023

Atlas Partners hosted our first Morning Meetup of 2023 at 161 Collins Street. We were thrilled to have Lucinda Hartley join us to share her insights on the future of our cities, work, and our communities. Thank you to all of those who came and made it a success. We look forward to seeing our guests again at our next Morning Meetup in May.

Melbourne Young Professionals

We are proud to announce our recent sponsorship of Melbourne Young Professionals (MYP), a networking group for professionals in their 20s and 30s working in the Accountancy and Financial Services sectors in Melbourne.

We are thrilled to have sponsored MYP's sold-out Launch Party at Nick & Nora's. The event was a tremendous success, providing an opportunity for young professionals to connect & collaborate with new peers.

Our sponsorship of MYP aligns with our commitment to supporting professional development and networking opportunities for our team members as well as the broader professional community. We look forward to continuing our support of MYP throughout 2023 and beyond.

Koala Kids Charity Day

Friday, 10 February 2023

The Atlas Partners team were proud to join the Koala Kids Foundation in their mission to bring happy moments to children & young people during cancer treatment, their families and their healthcare team. The team spent the day away from their desks and headed to the foundation's warehouse to pack scrubs for healthcare professionals in Victoria and Tasmania. It was a great opportunity to contribute to the healthcare community and support our front-line workers. If you're interested in continuing the support, head to www.koalakids.org.au today.

- 18 weeks paid leave for primary carers
- 4 weeks additional paid leave for primary carers who are also single parents
- 52 weeks superannuation paid for primary carers

International Women's Day

Atlas Partners celebrated International Women's Day with two events this March. Starting with a morning tea at our office with JustCo, followed by the IWD Business Chicks breakfast where our team heard from speakers Yemi Penn, Erika Cramer & Azure Antoinette.

Finally, our Directors updated the team on Atlas Partners' new parental leave policy. By establishing a robust parental leave policy, we are addressing one of the key, underlying factors impacting the gender pay gap.

Quarterly Award Winners

Atlas Partners are excited to announce a new initiative, quarterly award winners! Starting this quarter, we will be selecting employees who have made exceptional contributions to the company's success.

Sam Harrison took out the Billing Champion award. Sam has consistently performed over the past 12 months building out the Financial Services desk for Atlas. Sam's quarter was particularly impressive, having been away for most of January.

Sascha Naismith took out the Directors Award for her contributions this quarter. Sascha stepped outside the normal scope of her role as Finance Manager to implement a new HR platform for the business. Nothing out of the ordinary for Sascha, who is a huge pillar of support for entire team.

Well done Sam & Sascha!
